gets® go beyond | Job Skills Test for Caregivers

N·S·D·C RE IMAGINE FUTURE | zamit® Let's begin... | QAI® Authenticating Learning Qualifications and Assessments International, UK

Zamit and QAI are Approved Training Partners with National Skills Development Corporation

THE INTERNATIONAL EMPLOYABILITY SKILL TEST FOR CAREGIVERS

- Assesses new-age, real-world skills for caregivers
- AI-driven. Adapts itself to test-takers performance
- Results mapped to Common International Framework of Reference (CIFR) for Skills

+91. 9625 440 440

+91. 9625 440 440

connect@zamitqai.com

www.zamitqai.com

Click / Scan for Details

A STANDARDISED TEST ASSESSING IMPORTANT SKILLS FOR JOB READINESS IN CAREGIVING

The GETS Caregivers Skills test is a structured assessment designed to evaluate key workplace competencies essential for caregivers. It measures current work-place skills widely recognised as critical by employers across the industry. Unlike traditional academic examinations, this test provides an evidence-based benchmark of employability skills, offering candidates insights into their strengths and areas requiring development. The assessment generates a detailed report with quick results with personalised feedback, enabling individuals to align their skill profiles with global standards. By undertaking the GETS Caregivers Skills test, job seekers can make informed career decisions and demonstrate readiness for roles in the field of caregiving and employers can ensure the employees profile matches job requirements.

GETS Job Skills Test Assesses

Compassion & Person-Centred Care - empathy, patience, respect, trustworthy

Hygiene & Wellbeing Management - infection control, safe practices, risk awareness, healthy environment

Observation & Responsive Decision-Making - behavioural insights, timely reporting, critical thinking, situational judgement

Routine Management & Reliability – daily support, medication reminders, attention to detail, accountability

Resilience & Stress Management - emotional strength, self-regulation, situational adaptability, calm efficiency

Text Sources

The GETS Caregivers Skills test offers a highly engaging and personalised experience, presenting tasks based on real-world workplace scenarios that reflect common job responsibilities and challenges. By simulating practical situations, the test not only measures current capabilities but also highlights potential for career advancement.

Task Types

GETS Caregivers Skills test uses a variety of question types to allow test takers to demonstrate their employability skills and attitudes. These include:

- Scenario-based MCQ
- True/False
- Negative MCQ (Choose the exception)
- Multiple Response
- Chronological Order
- Assertion and Reason

Highlights

- Assesses 5 essential employability skills for caregivers
- Adaptive test adjusts to the skill level
- AI-powered, engaging, and simple
- Maximum 75 questions in 60 minutes
- Tasks set in the context of real-world work scenarios
- Aligned to the CIFR for Skills Framework
- Instant results highlighting strengths and improvement areas, along with feedback
- Suitable for entry and junior-level job seekers in the field of caregiving

+91. 9625 440 440

+91. 9625 440 440

connect@zamitqai.com

www.zamitqai.com

Click / Scan for Details